INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determing the eligbility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records(filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. These include receipts for Treasury warrants and miscellaneous correspondence, 1906-11. The original of these records is in RG 123; a copy is in RG 75.

Some related records in Records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, RG 75, have been reproduced as NARS Microfilm Publication T496, Census Roll, 1835, of the Cherokee Indians East of the Mississippi and Index to the Roll. Also in RG 75 are the classified subject files of the Bureau.

Records Relating to Enrollment of Eastern Cherokees by Guion Miller, 1908-10, M685, contains the general index to Eastern Cherokee applications, 2 volumes; the report submitted by Guion Miller, May 28, 1909, 10 volumes; the roll of Eastern Cherokees, May 28, 1909; the report on exceptions filed, January 5, 1910; the supplemental roll of Eastern Cherokees, January 5, 1910; transcripts of testimony, February, 1908-March 1909, 10 volumes; various indexes and rolls of Eastern Cherokee Indians, 1851, 1854, and 1884; and miscellaneous notes and drafts.

Appl. #22003

Andrew J. Russell being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Andrew J. Russell. I live at Democrat, N.C. I was born in 1853 in Madison Co. N. C. I claim Indian blood through my father and his father. My mother did not have any Indian blood. She came from Tenn. (Hawkins Co.) to N. C. My father died in 1862 and was a tolerably young man when he died. I never heard of my father or grandfather getting any money or land from the Govt. on account of their Indian blood. Just before I was born they were living in Madison Co., N. C. In 1882 I was living in Madison Co., N. C. My grandfather's name was Major Russell. That was the full name I ever heard my father call him. I don't know where he was born and raised. I did not hear of a roll being made up in 1882. My father had three brothers. One name David, Nelson. That is all I can recollect. None of my people were slaves of Indians or white people. I don't know why I was not enrolled in 1882. I never heard whether my father and grandfather lived with the Indians or white people. I have never heard my father speak of the Indian being driven away from this part of the country. I don't remember what Co. my father was in in the war. He was in the Southern Army.

His mother was raised by the McCroskins, and was not a slave. She was colored and lived with the McCroskins. I do not know who my grandmother's mother or father was. My father's father had the Indian blood. My father's father did not belong to anyone that I know of. The whole family was free. They were known as colored people and all of them free. My father's father never got any money as Indian that I know of. My father's own father raised him here in Tennessee. I don't know what kind of Indian my father was but heard him say that his father was an Indian.

Appln. No. 23005.

Ephraim Lynch, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Ephrain Lynch I am about 51 years old. I was born in Georgia. I claim my Indian blood through my mother, Huldy Lynch. I think her Indian blood came from her mother's side. I came up here the year after the surrender. I was living with a man by the name of Farr. He died and his wife claimed to own me, but said I was only bound. My mother was known as a free woman my grandfather has told me. Ellison Lynch passed as white. I think my mother's mother was a Gunn. I do not know whether she was white, Indian or negro. My mother claimed to be about a quarter or half Indian and it was supposed she got her Indian blood through her mother. My grandfather told me that my mother was Cherokee. My grandfather died about the close of the war and gave me this information. I came to Farr's just before the war. After his death his wife claimed that I was bound to her by the Court until I was 21, but I ran away with my sister. My sister lived with a colored gentleman called Julian. The man my sister was living with was named Dooley before she went to Farr's. Ben Sloan was said to be my father. I can't say whether he had any Indian blood. When I first remember my grandfather Lynch had me. I don't know whether he claimed to be an Indian or not. I did not know my grandmother but think she told me that it came through her.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter to me dated March, 24th, 1908. will say that I resided in Habersham County, Georgia in the year 1882. The reason that I was not enrolled at that time was that I did not know that where one had but little indian blood in them that it was necessary to file claim and again there was no agent looking after such matters in the country then.

My parents were not enrolled in 1851 and I do not know the reason why they were not enrolled unless it was for the same reason that I give on behalf of myself, there being no officer and not knowing that it was necessary. I do not know where my parents in the years 1834 and 1835. I do not know where my grandparents were residing at that time either.

My parents and grandparents were neither slaves or indians or whites.. Please advise me what else you desire in this case or claim and I will try to get it up.

My application is number 23017

Yours Truly,

James R. Poe

P.S.

I refer you to Jasper Thomas and Tom Vandiver and Mrs. M. C. Meeks all who will testify that I have indian blood.

James R. Poe, after being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I think I am 51 or 52 years of age; was born in Franklin County, Tenn. I claim Eastern Cherokee Indian blood through both my father and mother. My grandfather was a quarteroon. I have never received any Indian money from the government and never tried to get any. My mother nor father ever received any Indian money that I know of. In 1882 I lived in Haversham County but never heard of Hester, the enrolling agent about that time. My parents never lived with the Indians. I remember my grandparents. I cannot say that they lived with the Indians. My great-grandparents lived in Cherokee County. They lived with the Indians. I have heard my parents talk about our Indian blood a lot. My grandmother lived with us and I have heard her talk about it. My grandparents passed as white people. I have always voted. Bill Poe was my grandfather.

Artiemissie C. Gray,

Keystone,

Oklahoma.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of July 30, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, as the Court of Claims in its order of April 29, 1907, has extended the time for the filing of applications to August 31, 1907, and until the applications have all been filed it will be impossible to give final consideration to any of them, or to state how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 33,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

NLC. Special Commissioner.
